

Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

T. N. Hunter, of Liberty, was in town Monday on business.

Mrs. J. R. Ashmore returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Brevard, N. C., Saturday.

Mrs. E. E. Mauldin and eldest daughter, Miss Gladys, spent last Tuesday with Mrs. A. M. Morris.

Willie Grady, who is now located at Norfolk, Va., is here visiting the friends of his boyhood days.

The Union meeting at Secon was well attended, both Saturday and Sunday, and the collection for missions was good.

The Pickens Railway Co. has finished the "y's," and is no longer a "doodle." The business of the road is good, and we hope soon to have a nice new depot.

There will be an all-day singing at Flat Rock church the first Sunday in April. Everybody invited to bring song books. The singing will be conducted by P. C. Bartee.

Miss Maud Ashmore came in Saturday to rest for a few days at the home of her parents. She has been kept busy for several weeks nursing cases of scarlet fever in Atlanta.

Mrs. W. T. McFall will build a handsome residence on the site of her present one in the very near future. The old house will be rolled on to the lot next to the Mauldin house.

What has become of the Pickens Civic League? We did hope it would have caused flowers to bloom and grass to grow on the courthouse grounds this spring by way of a good beginning.

There will be a singing at Liberty school building on the second Sunday in April, beginning at 2 o'clock. Public cordially invited to attend.

P. C. CARTEE.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Carter arrived in Pickens from Chicago, Wednesday of last week. Mr. C. holds a lucrative position with the Southern Press Syndicate, and will travel in the south until June.

On April 10th the Pickens Chapter U. D. C. will hold an important meeting. This being the centennial anniversary of the birthday of Jefferson Davis, the 3d of June will be a great day all over the South.

Married, on the 29th ult., at the residence of J. L. Stansill, Jr., Miss Susan Anderson and Jackson Stansill, J. D. Simmons, N. P., officiating. Here's to the happy pair, wishing them a long, unclouded and prosperous life.

The many friends of F. A. Lewis are glad to see him out again. He has had a long siege of grip, and his appearance on the streets to-day was the first time since January. He has several children quite sick with measles, but they, too, are improving.—[Walhalla Courier.]

There will be an all-day singing at Enon next Sunday (5th), to which all those who are interested in music are requested to come. We will have Prof. W. T. Garrett, T. B. Owens, and numerous others with us. Song service will begin at 11 a. m. Bring song books (Gleanings of praise), and, best of all, dinner. C. M.

Back at the old Stand.

You know I Sold out a while back but am back at the old stand and getting in new goods right along.

I want to call your attention to some good fresh flour. I am selling it for less than the market price.

Now is the time you want salt fish. I have several kinds, some as low as 1c. apiece.

Somehow green coffee does not sell as well as it once did. I have a lot of very fine green and will sell it cheap to move it off. I also have the parched.

Ferry's Seed 2 1/2c. for a for a full size 5 cent paper. Kerosine oil at 15c. per gallon.

I am always in the market for country produce.

I have a magnificent line of samples of Tailor-made suits. I can save you money and solicit an inspection.

T. D. HARRIS.
